Angostura aromatic bitters was first made in 1824 in the town of Angostura, Venezuela. Angostura aromatic bitters may be distinguished from all other aromatic bitters by its fine flavour and aromatic odour.

Tasting Notes:

Dark reddish brown, fairly thin and free flowing compared to some bitters. Quite aromatic, if not as complex as some bitters. Primary tastes are clove, gentian, cinnamon, angelica root, quinine alkali notes. Finish is medium-length.
