Grown on the same limestone capped hills of Anjou, this is a rich, creamy dessert-style white, with lovely balancing citrus acidity. A complex and age-worthy honeyed Chenin, later picked and showing luscious sweet honey characters

Tasting Notes:

Notes of honey, mermalade, peach jam and nectarine. The palate is lush, soft and balanced - loing and quite weighty with streaks if lime to balance the creaminess

FAMILY WINE MERCHANTS SINCE 1906

Vinification Hand picked, several 'sorties' to get each grape at full ripeness. The garpes are pressed and the free run sweet juice fermented in tank and barrel	Specification
