Folie d'Ines is named after Inès Hébert, the former owner of the Domaine. Cuvée d'Ines Rouge is a fresh blend of two traditional grape varieties, only planted on the best parcels. Increased precision in the plot selection as well as precise winemaking contribute to the harmonious ageing of this outstanding wine

Tasting Notes:

This dark ruby red is very intense and expressive, with blackberry and sour cherry aromas, followed by hints of sweet pepper. Plenty of well-balanced tannins on the palate, supported by a pleasant acidity. An elegant and well-structured wine!

Press Comments	Matthew Dukes, Money Week, September 2023: "Two reds stuck up their hands, which are worthy of serious inspection. 2021 Folie d'Inès, Domaine Saint-André, Pays d'Oc (£15.99) is a Cabernet Franc, Merlot-based blend with remarkable depth and an imposing stance on the palate. Named after Inès Hébert, the former owner of the Domaine, I cannot think of another Southern French red with this degree of flair, impact and individuality. It has all the hallmarks of a wine with twice the price, so be sure to load up if you adore swarthy, evocative, daring red wines".
