A Shiraz that overdelivers for its price – unquestionably sumptuous, and spicy! The concentration of fruit achieved is outstanding in this French full bodied and juicy red.

Tasting Notes:

Bright ruby red. On the nose notes of blackberry, violet and cassis. On the palate the fruit opens up with a hint of liquorice. Extremely silky tannins and subtle oaking that balances the dense fruit characteristics.

Press Comments	Highly Commended - Wine Merchant Top 100, 2024. Victoria Moore, The Telegraph, March 2024, 'The 25 best wines for Easter lamb, chocolate and bank holiday bubbles': "This one is a belter – all juicy black berries with a lick of liquorice. And it's brilliant value, too. Hello roast lamb." Graham Holter, Wine Merchant Magazine, November 2023: 'It's only natural these days to raise a quizzical eyebrow at wines that arrive with an RRP below £10, and normally it's a question of working out what's wrong, rather than right. But this is a sumptuous, juicy Languedoc red with enough depth and spicy details to justify another few quid on the price ticket'.
