A crisp, balanced and fruity Douro white. Being made by the Symington Family, the makers of illustrious ports Graham's, Cockburn's, Warre's and Dow's means there is pedigree behind this wine.

Tasting Notes:

Wonderfully fresh summer and tropical fruits: peach, apricot and pineapple, which linger pleasurably on the palate. Very crisp and satisfying in the mouth with hints of green apples and lightly herbal nuances, finishing with an attractive citrus acidity - vibrant and appealing.
