Funky Label, highlighting the top wine from this boutique producer. I especially loved the ripe forward nose of crushed red fruits, balancing sweet oak and subtle spice notes. Integrated, complete and poised, this is a wine to open and savour, preferably watching the sun go down whilst the steaks spit on the Barbeque

Tasting Notes:

Full bodied, intense nose and offering warm and mulled red fruits, nice lick of jam, oak and spice. The tannins wrap around the brooding core, and 30 mins breathing release a richness of fruit and heady, generous structure that really hits the spot.
