Ardnamurchan The Midgie Release Single Malt Whisky

Price	£50.00
Code	ARDN070

Based in the rural Western Highlands as they are, they thought it was only right to celebrate the abundant, spectacular wildlife which surrounds their distillery. Having considered the animals which best represent their peninsula, they could come up with no better candidate than the midge, especially at this time of year! They are delighted to be officially collaborating with Smidge on this release, which will be a limited edition batch of only 6200 bottles.

Tasting Notes:

Aromas of Brandy snaps, pancake batter, crystallised ginger, nougat, smoked Manuka honey, love hearts, satsuma peel, freshly squeezed orange juice, extinguished candle. The palate is mouth cooling, fresh mint, bread and butter pudding, Edinburgh rock, cooked peaches, salted almonds, cookie dough, ashy. Leading to a finish that is sweet, smoky, lingering. With a bite.
