Wow, what a wine – is this Meursault?! Situated in a side valley near the Côte de Beaune, this appellation produces delicious zippy wines given its cooler location. Purchased in 2012, their 0.26 ha plot is situated adjacent the Meursault appellation.

Tasting Notes:

A punchy, vibrant and concentrated Burgundy possessing great depth of fruit, minerality and oak yet also showing great finesse and elegance. The impression is of a poise and power that seems to build and build, making it more akin to a Meursault or Chassagne. A superb wine.
