This cuvée was named in tribute to Louis, Elisabeth Salmon's brother, who was passionate about oenology and highly involved in winemaking from the earliest creation of the House. Originating from the best parcels of the Côte des Blancs, the Blanc de Blancs vintage is endowed with purity and minerality.

Tasting Notes:

Pale-gold colour. Aromas of citrus fruits pure and a chalky, balanced with hints of butter and fresh honey. A creamy sensation in the mouth with a beautifully chiselled finesse. A refreshing balance of natural flavours marzipan, flaky brioche, white fruits and white pepper.
