The memory of the Champagne PLOYEZ-JACQUEMART, a unique cuvée with the assembly of great vintages 1976 -1982-1983-1990-1995-1988-1996-1999-2000-2004-2011-2012 and 2013.

Tasting Notes:

Those vintages will bring power and profound complexity. It is the union of 61% of Chardonnay from Mesnil sur Oger, Puisieulx, Cramant, Cuis, Bisseuil, Tauxière, Grauve, with 31% Pinot Noir from Mailly Champagne and 8% Meunier from Ludes. To balance the richness of this Champagne 41% of the blend is without malolactic fermentation. An extra brut dosage allows the wine to express all its aromas, its great richness and its freshness.

| Vinification | Granite symbolises inking, solidarity, it also represents immutability and firmness, but it is above all a blend of several minerals. So many common characteristics with this champagne: a blend of three grape varieties and more than 12 vintages, it traces the history of Champagne Ployez-Jacquemart and the creation of this cu vée was in honour of the House's 90th anniversary. All these great vintages bring power and complexity to the wine. To balance the richness of this champagne, 41% of the blend is without malolactic fermentation. The Extra-Brut dosage allows the wine to express all its aromas and its great freshness |
