Produced from south facing vineyards situated just outside the boundary with Pommard, this is a really interesting wine. 3 parcels, the oldest of which are planted with 70 year old vines, are very well positioned and enjoy all day sunshine. Alban adds 4% Pinot Beurot (an ancient Burgundian grape similar to Pinot Gris) to the wine to enhance the aromatics.

Tasting Notes:

Fresh with oodles of cherry aromatics and wild hedgerow on the nose, the palate is fresh and seductive with a touch of spice and carefully woven dusty tannins. Another wine that offers brilliant value for money.
