Campo Nuevo Garnacha Rosé

Price	£8.99
Code	CAMP085

A fantastic, fruit driven rosé that's perfect for the BBQ season, or when you want to impress those boring friends that just go on and on and on about blush Zinfandels or their villa in Provence!

Tasting Notes:

The nose has aromas of strawberry, raspberry and redcurrant. There is a subtle creamy edge on the palate and its very well balanced and offers terrific value. Yes it's dry, but it has all the body and character to make it a great food wine too.

Vinification

Garnacha (Grenache Noir in France) is naturally at home in the warm and open vineyards of Navarra, where it has become the backbone of many wines. The Garnacha grapes for this light and crisp rosé were picked over several days to isolate the grapes best utilised for a rosé. The grapes were de-stemmed, and transferred into large steel tanks and fermented on skins at lukewarm temperatures for around 4 days, to attain the correct colour for the regions rules. (yes, they really do have a colour scale for rosé in Navarra). At this point the now pink juice is racked off to be fermented to dryness in a separate steel tank, whilst the remaining red grape skins and pulp are fermented to dryness and used as 'seasoning' for other red wines. The pink wine is then filtered and bottled early to preserve the freshness, peppery and yet crisp nature of the Garnacha grape.
