Chassagne-Montrachet 1er Cru Les Vergers 2024, Domaine Guy Amiot et Fils 6x75cl

Price	£350.00
Code	CHAS810

Meaning ‘Orchard’, the vineyard of Vergers is situated at the top of the slope as it bends north away from the village. The aspect is north-east so the vines enjoy a longer, less sun kissed aspect and hence the freshness of the wines are immediate. Amiot’s 0.5 hectare is planted with 65 year old vines and he mentioned that “Les Vergers was arguably our best vineyard in 2024, and the fruit was intense and very exotic when picked”.

Tasting Notes:

Generous and richly textured this wine opens with a creamy, opulent nose of tropical fruit, dried pineapple, peach, and subtle vanilla oak, lifted by exotic spice and roasted cashew notes. On the palate it is intense and layered, with concentrated fruit complemented by striking minerality. Fresh, tangy citrus acidity cuts through the richness, keeping the wine vibrant, mouthwatering, and explosive, while the finish is long, precise. Stunning!
