12 separate parcels of vines, spread across 2.5ha of the lower slopes all around the village, each parcel with a different aspect. The majority of the vines are aged 40-90 year old, though 2 parcels have 'younger' vines at just 20 year old. Aged in new oak for 12 months, followed by 6 months back in tank to marry the different parcels.

Tasting Notes:

This is a wine of great intensity for a 'village' wine, offering honeyed white stone fruits, a layer of toasted oak and finely balanced, almost thrilling acidity and minerality. Streaks of lime cordial, tangy fresh citrus and spice are all incredibly well balanced and moreish
