12 separate parcels of vines, spread across 2.5ha of the lower slopes all around the village, each parcel with a different aspect. The majority of the vines are aged 40-90 year old, though 2 parcels have 'younger' vines at just 20 year old. With yields of almost 50hl/ha this was a joyous and bountiful harvest for Thierry and Fabrice Amiot

Tasting Notes:

This 2023 Chassagne is showing a ripe, nutty and richly structured palate, balanced, tense and showing lovely precision and depth of ripe fruit. White peach, nuance of pear and baked dessert apple, layered with traces of honey, cereal and sweet oak. Very textured and opulent.
