Tasting Notes:

This is an impressive Angludet, with less Merlot and more Petit Verdot than usual. The resulting wine offers a bouquet that is soft, ripe and alluring with notes of blackcurrant and fresh black cherries. The palate is succulent and plush with a sweet underbelly of ripe cassis and a smattering of liqourice, the tannins are subtle and there is an appealing freshness giving excellent balance. This is a charming wine that oozes style and finesse.
