Price	£49.95
Code	BATA145

Château Batailley is one of the jewels of the Castéja family and the Borie-Manoux firm. The name of this estate comes from the word 'bataille', meaning battle, in memory of the skirmish that took place in the vineyards in 1453 during the Hundred year war.

Tasting Notes:

A charming, perfumed bouquet showing aromas of cassis and fresh plum. The palate is polished and vibrant, with seductive notes of cigar box and classic pencil lead characters, finely structured tannins and well proportioned oak (60% new). This is a classic Pauillac, finely balanced with an impressive finish. Batailley was one for the lucky ones in 2021, with no damage from either frost or mildew.
