Château Batailley 2022 will be dressed with a special label, for En Primeur buyers only, with a special label in honour of HM Queen Elizabeth II. One of the jewels of the Castéja family and the Borie-Manoux firm, the name of this estate comes from the word ‘bataille’, meaning battle, in memory of the skirmish that took place in the vineyards in 1453 during the Hundred year war.

Tasting Notes:

A top performance this vintage. Brooding black fruit aromas, cedar oak and a touch of coffee. The palate is tight with a solid frame, there are blackberry and liquorice notes, cedar oak and the tannins are polished and binding. This is a classic Pauillac, oozing power and finesse that also offers very good value.
