HOUSE OF TOWNEND

Château Chantalouette 2016, Half Bottle

Price	£18.49
Code	CHAN035

A wonderful Pomerol - so charming – round, elegant, and rich in plummy fruits. Chantalouette is named after one of the parcels constituting the vineyard of Château de Sales.

Tasting Notes:

This is a full-bodied red with enticing dark fruit and subtle spice aromas. The palate is smooth and well-balanced, rich in dark fruit and possesses a lovely, savoury edge. A wonderful Pomerol.

Producer Overview	Château Chantalouette is the second wine of Château de Sales. Owned by the same family for over five centuries, the 116 acre estate is the largest in the appellation and boasts the only true castle of Pomerol. The viticultural approach is traditional with the vineyard ploughed regularly and cultivated with respect for the environment; cover cropping and green harvest are practised with great care. The grapes are harvested by hand at optimal maturity of each block.
