More restrained and structured than many recent vintages, the 2025 is a wine that prioritises precision, tension and longevity over immediate charm. Its firm structure and layered complexity suggest a long evolution ahead, rewarding those prepared to cellar it patiently. With its balance of concentration, freshness and unmistakable identity, this stands among the most compelling and ageworthy Cheval Blancs produced in recent decades.

Tasting Notes:

The 2025 Cheval Blanc is a remarkably distinctive and expressive wine. Produced from exceptionally low yields of just 15hl/ha, the wine combines extraordinary concentration with surprising freshness and precision. The bouquet unfolds gradually, revealing layers of black cherry, cassis and wild berry fruit alongside notes of blood orange, crushed stone, graphite, dried flowers and subtle spice. As it opens in the glass, hints of sage, mint, incense, cocoa and cedar emerge, adding further complexity and intrigue. On the palate, the wine is refined yet powerful, built around a dense core of vibrant fruit framed by finely sculpted tannins. The texture is polished and seamless, delivering intensity without excess weight. Cabernet Franc plays a defining role, bringing aromatic lift, structure and remarkable length to the finish. Despite its depth, the wine remains poised and energetic, supported by bright acidity and a modest alcohol level of just 12.7%.
