Tasting Notes:

A very impressive, overt bouquet with dark fruits and a touch of stewed plum. The palate is soft and linear with a well defined structure. Rich in creamy black fruits with an emphasis on cassis and cedar, the tannins are firm and there is a refreshing balance. The finish is long and lingering, round and stylish. What great value this is!

Press Comments	Decanter, June 2024, 20 Top Cru Bourgeois Buys, 92 points: "Plenty of plump, dark fruit on the palate with lovely purity, driving acidity and structure from the well-judged oak and fruit tannin. Blend based on 85% Merlot, only 30% aged in barrels, 64% new, for 12 months. Softly fruited; those wanting pencil lead character should look elsewhere, but many will enjoy this fleshy, ripe style."
