Description:

Château Ducru-Beaucaillou is owned by the Borie family and is fully deserving of its 'super-second' status. Located in the south-east of the appellation the 50 hectares of vines are planted with 65% Cabernet Sauvignon, 25% Merlot, 5% Cabernet Franc and 5% Petit Verdot. Highly sought after, this Château produces intense, powerful wines that are always beautifully balanced.

Tasting Notes:

"A classy, complex bouquet of lead pencil, mineral, earth, cassis, and flowers jumps from the glass of this dark ruby/purple-colored 1997. Evolved and elegant, with noticeable tannin, it exhibits both breed and class as well as moderate weight, excellent depth, purity, and symmetry. Enjoy it now and over the next 10-12 years ... at the minimum". Robert Parker Jr Wine Advocate #128 April 2000"
