Château Langoa Barton 2009

3ème Cru St Julien

Another impressive vintage at Langoa which is stepping outside the shadow of its great Leoville sister.

Tasting Notes:

A classic, structured wine with immense depths of ripe cassis fruits and serious tannins, well balanced and excellent length.

Press Comments	Neal Martin - 94 - "Served blind at the Southwold 2009 tasting. This is a superb performance from Langoa Barton. Here, the 2009 has a lifted, perfumed, Burgundy-inspired bouquet that is nicely defined but showing a little more unresolved oak than its peers. The palate is medium-bodied with sappy red fruit on the entry: strawberry, cedar and blackcurrant. This is strict and very linear, conservative but compelling. The class is here from start to finish and presently stands shoulder to shoulder with its "big bro". Tasted January 2013. – eRobertParker.com, Jul 2013
