Revered by collectors and wine drinkers alike, it stands as a benchmark expression of classic Pauillac.

Tasting Notes:

The nose is a jam jar of rich blackcurrant fruits screaming from the glass with power and expression. The palate shows a strong and sturdy structure, wrapped with a concentrated black fruit structure. The tannins are firm lending great support, there is graphite and slate minerality all balanced by a wonderful raspberry freshness. This is a finely crafted and powerful wine that represents the traits of the Pauillac appellation superbly.
