Set in the rolling heart of Moulis-en-Médoc, Château Mauvesin-Barton blends centuries of history with the understated precision of the Barton family. Since its acquisition in 2011, the estate has undergone a quiet transformation, revealing a fresher and more polished expression of the Left Bank. Its mosaic of gravel and clay limestone soils brings both structure and elegance to the wines. Cabernet Sauvignon provides backbone and classic Médoc character, whilst Merlot adds suppleness and charm. The result is a refined, approachable style that continues to elevate Mauvesin-Barton amongst the appellation's finest properties.

Tasting Notes:

A very alluring bouquet - rich ripe and fruity. The palate offers a wonderful drinkability with bags of ripe black and red fruits, succulent tannins and a blueberry freshness. The finish is long and elegant with bags of finesse. A star buy!
