Pavie Macquin has a reputation for producing elegant and powerful wines with strong concentration and the 2025 vintage is yet another example this. Intense and voluptuous, with mocha and creamy cassis fruit dominating, this is a proper belly dancer!

Tasting Notes:

A rich and ripe bouquet, even opulent and luxurious. The palate is intense and voluptuous, with mocha and creamy cassis fruit dominating. There is a good smattering of cedar oak and the tannins a ripe and firm giving added structure. A proper belly dancer!
