HOUSE OF TOWNEND

Cotes du Jura Savagnin Nature, Frederic Lambert

Price	£32.99
Code	COTE235

From an 0.3 hectare plot planted with Savagnin, this cuvée is named after the historic name of this grape variety.

Tasting Notes:

Pronounced nose with ripe pear and stone fruit. A bright, lively acidity gives a fresh profile with notes of apricot skin and a citrus lift. Almond and cashew are lifted by floral notes and a lovely salinity. The finish is long with lingering mineral and nutty notes.

HOUSE OF TOWNEND

Specification
Vinification	Aged in barriques, ouillé, in one year old French oak. The wine is topped up regularly to limit oxygen exposure, preserving freshness while maintaining a clean, precise style that allows the grape's natural complexity to show through.
ABV	13.5%
Size	75cl
Drinking Window	Drink now
Country	France
Region	Jura
Type	White Wine
Grapes	Savagnin
Vintage	2022
Style	Dry
Body	Rich, rounded and full flavoured
Producer	Frederic Lambert
Producer Overview	Frédéric and Marie-Anne Lambert founded the estate in the early 2000s, establishing it in 2003 following Frédéric's long-standing passion for viticulture. It began with around 5 hectares of vines and has since grown to approximately 12 hectares. Based near Toulouse-le-Château, the domaine specialises in the main Jura grape varieties with an emphasis on low yields and precise vineyard work to express site and variety. Frederic's son Romain joined in 2020, continuing the family involvement, with his daughter Lucie expected to join in the future.
Closure Type	Cork