FAMILY WINE MERCHANTS SINCE 1906

Croft 2017 Vintage Port

Price	£71.99
Code	CROF070

Founded in 1588 Croft is the oldest firm still active today as a Port wine producer. The Croft 2017 is powerful and seductive, with a rich array of black fruit, exotic spices and marmalade. One of the finest Croft Vintages of recent years.

Tasting Notes:

Dense inky core fading to a magenta rim. A seductive Croft nose, ripe and voluptuous but with the depth and density characteristic of the 2017 vintage. As usual, plump, juicy blackcurrant, black cherry and raspberry form the backdrop. However, the nose is soon drawn into a vortex of heady, complex aromas in which resinous scents of eucalyptus and gumcistus blend with pungent notes of sage and mint, fresh hints of grapefruit and a mellow spiciness. On the palate, firm, sinewy tannins are wrapped in a thick envelope of dense, velvety texture. As is often the case, this is one of the most exotic and beguiling wines of the vintage. However, it is also a weighty wine, dense and deeply coloured, with the concentration and stamina to ensure a long life in bottle.
