Price	£105.00
Code	DAFT045

The Daftmill 2012 Summer Batch Release is a 12-year-old Lowland single malt Scotch whisky distilled in July and August 2012 and bottled in June 2025. Matured in 23 first-fill ex-bourbon barrels using estate-grown Concerto barley, limited to 5,250 bottles.

Tasting Notes:

Citrus aromas of lemon drizzle cake, green apple peel, vanilla cream, and freshly cut hay or silage. The palate is lush and oily with orchard fruits (pears and apples), white chocolate, malted biscuits, and a touch of white pepper or ginger spice. Leading to a crisp, clean finish, gently drying with lingering citrus zest and soft grassiness.
