The 2019 red Bandol is an ode to Mourvèdre. From this terraced vineyard facing the sea, it narrates the wonders of the Mediterranean, with scents of scrubland, liquorice, plum, and spices.

Tasting Notes:

A complex nose of opulent and intense in black fruit with a hint of barnyard and earthy notes. Full, plush and ripe on the palate, chewy tannins fill the mouth and provide a chalky base for the ripe fruit. Marked by a precise plum notes as well as spice, liquorice, pepper and dried herbs.

Producer Overview	Georges Delille bought what would become Domaine de Terrebrune in 1963, a property in Ollioules, just east of Bandol. An idyllic spot dotted with olive groves and framed by the Mediterranean and the mountain called Gros-Cerveau (Big Brain.) A mass reconstruction of vineyards followed the declaration of A.O.C. Bandol (1941); with the ambition to revive the noble Mourvèdre grape. Georges spent ten years renovating the property by terracing hillsides and replanting vineyards and by 1980, his son Reynald joined him, and together they launched their first bottled vintage of Domaine de Terrebrune, which Reynald named in honour of the rich, brown soils they farm.
