The grapes are grown on terraces in the most northerly reaches of the appellation, in the lieux-dits of Poncet, Thomas, Les Pallières and Terrasse du Diable, at an altitude of 250-400 metres. Most are small, isolated plots surrounded by woodland. A warm, integrated and generous wine, a stony streak of minerality and a lick of freshness provide added dimension.

Tasting Notes:

A warm, integrated and generous wine, showing bright red and some purple notes in the glass. The nose is full and forward, showing high levels of ripeness and sweet red fruits, layered with wet stones, some menthol and a sprinkling of roasted herbs and coffee. The palate is full, generous, and warm, again with layers of creamy red and black fruits, coffee, roasted meat and a generous spicy character and the tannins are almost silky, enveloping the sweet red fruit core, spice with the oak very much in the background. The finish is long, warm and even, with an almost brooding quality that seems to build rather than melt away. A stony streak of minerality and a lick of freshness complete this wonderful wine.

FAMILY WINE MERCHANTS SINCE 1906

Specification
Vinification	Produced in exactly the same way as its sister wine, the only difference being its terroir. The grapes are handpicked and particaly destemmed before fermentation in concrete and oak tanks. After a period of 10 months ageing in concrete vats, the wine is aged in large oak foudres for a period of 10 months. It is then bottled without filtration.
