HOUSE OF TOWNEND

Hamilton Russell Pinot Noir 2025

Price	£46.00
Code	HAMI105

“Hamilton Russell Estate wines are not attention-seekers but they undoubtedly offer some of the finest, most individual, expressions of Pinot Noir and Chardonnay anywhere in the world” Andy Howard MW, Decanter. Furthermore Hamilton Russell consider 2025 to be one of the best of their 45 vintages to date, with Matthew Jukes claiming "They ought to be atop your Burgundy-style wish list" The 2025 vintage Pinot Noir earns 93 points from Wine Advocate, a testament to winemaker Emul Ross's philosophy of minimal intervention and is consistently praised for its silky texture and elegant complexity

Tasting Notes:

Opens with red cherry, wild strawberry, pomegranate, and damp earth, framed by white pepper, cedar, and subtle baking spice. The palate is focused and mineral-driven with vibrant acidity and a long, lingering, savoury finish.

HOUSE OF TOWNEND

Specification
ABV	13%
Size	75cl
Drinking Window	Drink now
Country	South Africa
Region	Hemel-en-Aarde Valley
Type	Red Wine
Grapes	Pinot Noir
Genres	Fine Wine, Vegan, Vegetarian
Vintage	2025
Body	Elegant, refined and supple
Producer	Hamilton Russell Vineyards
Producer Overview	One of the most southerly wine Estates in Africa, this Pinot Noir and Chardonnay specialist pioneered viticulture in the beautiful, cool, maritime, Hemel-en-Aarde Valley appellation behind the old fishing village of Hermanus. Founder, Tim Hamilton Russell, purchased the undeveloped 170 hectare property in 1975, after an exhaustive search for the most southerly site on which to make South Africa's top cool climate wines from a selection of noble varieties.
Closure Type	Cork