HOUSE OF TOWNEND

Historoots Agiorgitiko Peloponnese, Canvino

Price	£12.99
Code	CANV010

A vibrant, modern Greek wine from the Peloponnese, this 100% Agiorgitiko showcases Greece's signature red grape - soft, easy-drinking, fruit forward and juicy with velvety, low to moderate tannins.

Tasting Notes:

Juicy red cherry and pomegranate lead the way, framed by delicate floral notes and a whisper of spice. Medium bodied with velvety tannins and bright fruit purity, this youthful Agioratiko finishes fresh, smooth and fruity.

Producer Overview	Cavino was founded in 1958 and is located on the slopes of Aigialia, amid charming vineyards. The location is a unique combination of mountains and the sea and creates a special climate that gives local grapes their exceptional high quality. There, it uses mostly indigenous grape varieties such as Roditis, Lagorthi, Sideritis, Mavro Kalavrytino, and Mavrodaphne, as well as international varieties such as Cabernet Sauvignon, Syrah, Chardonnay and Sauvignon Blanc. The winery has state-of-the-art winemaking equipment, two modern wine bottling lines and fully air-conditioned warehouses for preserving and ageing the wines. Their main goal and vision is to promote Greek vineyards both in Greece and abroad and are committed to producing high-quality wines.
