HOUSE OF TOWNEND

Historoots Moschofilero Peloponnese, Canvino

Price	£12.49
Code	CANV005

If you are searching for a white wine that combines intense aromatics, vibrant acidity, elegance, and remarkable food versatility, it's time to discover Moschofilero. Native to Greece and increasingly recognized on the global stage, Moschofilero wines are capturing the attention of sommeliers, wine collectors, and curious enthusiasts alike. Part of a new wine range that celebrates Greece's most classic grape varieties with a modern twist this wine is vibrant and refreshing!!!

Tasting Notes:

Fragrant and finely textured, showing layers of rose water, grapefruit zest and white peach. Bright acidity frames a core of orchard fruit and delicate spice, whilst a whisper of fresh herbs adds complexity. The finish is clean, lifted and floral, leaving a lingering impression of citrus blossom and mountain herbs.

HOUSE OF TOWNEND

Specification
Vinification	Careful handling of the grapes. Alcoholic fermentation at low temperatures in stainless steel tanks. The wine stays in contact with its fine lees for almost two months.
ABV	11.5%
Size	75cl
Drinking Window	Drink now
Country	Greece
Region	Peloponnese
Type	White Wine
Grapes	Moschofilero
Vintage	2025
Style	Dry
Body	Soft, fruity and aromatic
Producer	Cavino Winery
Producer Overview	Cavino was founded in 1958 and is located on the slopes of Aigialia, amid charming vineyards. The location is a unique combination of mountains and the sea and creates a special climate that gives local grapes their exceptional high quality. There, it uses mostly indigenous grape varieties such as Roditis, Lagorthi, Sideritis, Mavro Kalavrytino, and Mavrodaphne, as well as international varieties such as Cabernet Sauvignon, Syrah, Chardonnay and Sauvignon Blanc. The winery has state-of-the-art winemaking equipment, two modern wine bottling lines and fully air-conditioned warehouses for preserving and ageing the wines. Their main goal and vision is to promote Greek vineyards both in Greece and abroad and are committed to producing high-quality wines.
Closure Type	Screw Cap
Food Matches	Fish and seafood