Tasting Notes:

A deep ruby colour with a violet hue, hinting at its vibrancy. Beautiful aromas of crushes berries and dark plum mingle with floral notes of violets. Subtle hints of of cracked black pepper and a whisper of Mediterranean herbs (thyme, and lavender) round out the boquet. Medium bodied with a velvety texture.

Producer Overview	Laurent Miquel is an eighth generation winemaker and was brought up on the family domaine of Château Cazal Viel in the heart of St Chinian. Following a career as an engineer, Laurent returned home in 1996 to work with his father, Henri (known locally as Monsieur Syrah), and in 2001 Laurent's Irish wife Neasa joined the business. Laurent Miquel owns over 200 hectares of vines in the Languedoc: 150 hectares at Château Cazal Viel, and an additional 50 hectares at Château Auzines, in Corbières, where Laurent and Neasa put down their own roots in 2009. The total Château Auzines estate is 270 ha – the rest of the land is left wild to the garrigue and wild boar, in line with the sustainability philosophy at the heart of this family business. Read more online
