Lochlea Distillery Sowing Edition, Single Malt Whisky, Third Crop

Price	£50.00
Code	LOCH105

Over the past few years, their seasonal small batch releases have showcased the signature Lochlea style in four different ways. As a working farm, these expressions tie-in with exactly what is happening here at that time of year. Sowing Edition (Third Crop) is the first in a new and final set of four limited editions, marking the end of the Seasonal trilogy. Matured in 100% fresh 1st-fill ex-Bourbon barrels, these casks are 9 months older than those used in Sowing Edition (Second Crop), and the difference is incredible! This whisky really highlights the floral aromatics associated with distilling in the colder months.

Tasting Notes:

Almonds, rose petals on the nose. The palate has white pepper and a vibrant burst of apple blossom leading to a finish full of warm straw and fresh grass.
