HOUSE OF TOWNEND

Longboard Point Break 2022

Price	£34.99
Code	LONG210

Originally an experiment in 2006, this cuvée has become a key cuvée of the Longboard range. Produced without regional restrictions, it blends Syrah from the cool Russian River Valley with Merlot and Malbec from Alexander and Russian River Valleys.

Tasting Notes:

Notes of blackberry, blackcurrant with a touch of leather and spice. A firm structure with ripe tannins, a touch of vanilla and a bright acidity and a long persistent finish

HOUSE OF TOWNEND

Specification
ABV	14.5%
Size	75cl
Drinking Window	Drink now through to 2030
Country	USA
Region	California
Area	Sonoma
Type	Red Wine
Grape Mix	49% Syrah, 38% Merlot, 7% Malbec, 4% Cabernet Sauvignon, 2 % Grenache
Genres	Fine Wine, Vegan, Vegetarian
Vintage	2022
Body	Rich, bold and robust
Producer	Longboard Vineyards
Producer Overview	Longboard was born from the passion of Oded Shakked, surfer first, winemaker later, who brings a unique perspective to winemaking, or rather winegrowing as he prefers to call it.
Closure Type	Cork
Press Comments	Wine Enthusiast, 2025, 92 points: "This deeply extracted but velvet-y smooth blend bursts from the glass with aromas of fresh cherry, concentrated strawberry, dark chocolate and rose petals on the nose. The palate dances with lively acidity and rich berry flavours before a finish laden with aromatic spice and plush tannin."