The vineyard contains ancient vines, up to 90 years old on 1 parcel. Vinification sees 20% whole bunch ferment and aging in 25% new oak for one year. An explosion of exotic red fruits, soothing, polished tannins and an underlay of rusticity giving an added dimension. A great expression of the terroir of this appellation.

Tasting Notes:

The bouquet is intense, ripe, smoky and powerful. The palate is equally full, almost brooding with layers of sweet cherry fruit, raspberry coulis and confiture, equally balanced by a tight minerality and quenching freshness. The oak is careful and underpins the fruit and texture perfectly. A beautifully crafted wine.
