Marsannay Les Longeroies 2010, Domaine Mortet

One of Burgundy's great names although it was only established in the early 1990s. The fruit is always extremely ripe, and the wines produced as if they were Grand Crus. The style lends itself to early drinking with intense, sumptuous fruit however if you have the patience and are able to resist, age beautifully.

Tasting Notes:

This wine is full of flavour! Ripe berry fruit and liqueur-like flavours supported by a frame of tannin that feels expansive and textural, followed by a rich and mildly rustic finish.
