Mendel Cabernet Sauvignon

Price	£24.99
Code	MEND105

Mendel Cabernet Sauvignon is combined as a complex of ripe plums, black cherries, raspberries, cherries, cooler floral notes and those from the wood. It is a very elegant and harmonious wine in which acidity and freshness give it balance and long finish, ensuring an excellent aging in bottle.

Tasting Notes:

Very intense, dark and pure in colour. Complex, elegant and very intense aromas. It is a special Cabernet Sauvignon with a lot of black and red fruits on the nose such as cassis, red and black pepper and species. Afterwards appears some mineral notes as chalk and also very integrated notes coming from its ageing in French oak such as vanilla, caramel and smoky notes which denote its 12 month ageing. Wine of great kindness in the mouth. The mature and soft tannins are round and confer vivacity in the mouth. Its acidity gives it freshness, assuring a good longevity and potential for bottle ageing.
