We are delighted to introduce this intriguing grape variety into our portfolio. Produced from a 1h50 plot situated 35 meters above the Orbieu River, resting on a terrace made up of pebbles deposited by the floods during the great glaciations. Aromatic notes of citrus fruits, white flowers, honey, and a hint of almond. The wine delivers a rich yet elegant mouthfeel, beautifully balanced by a refreshing and lively acidity.

Tasting Notes:

The wine presents a fresh nose, with aromas of citrus fruits, white flowers, honey, and a hint of almond. On the palate, it is rich and well-structured, offering a round yet elegant mouthfeel, balanced by a delightful and refreshing acidity.

| Press Comments | Highly Commended Wine Merchant Top 100, 2026. Jancisrobinson.com, 2025, 15 points: "A cheerful peaches-and-clementine wine, grinning with fresh fruit and wearing a daisy chain of flowers on top. (TC)" Wine Merchant Magazine, Tried and Tested, May 2025: "Frederic Bousquet's dad was only 17 when he started this business in 1973, and sadly his riverside winery was destroyed by floods in 1999. Cachet discovered the rebuilt facilities on a trip to the Languedoc and was immediately struck by this citrus, honeyed and very affordable summer quencher." |
