Founded in 1639 and still based in its oringinal house in Riquewihr, the family have continued to grow into one of the most successful and dynamic of all wine estates in Alsace - being highly export oriented, they produce the majority of their top end wiens from their own vineyards with a successful negociant business flourishing and based on contract fruit and wines.

Tasting Notes:

Rich, ripe and fruit-driven with notes of honey and roasted pistaccio, apple pie and a touch of cream and spice.
