HOUSE OF TOWNEND

Pommard 1er Cru Les Epenots 2023, Domaine Joseph Voillot

Price	£99.00
Code	POMM265

A very small plot, just 0.18ha in size with an average age of vines of 61 years, situated to the right as you enter Pommard from Beaune, lying on vineyards that slope gently up from the road on the right as you leave Beaune, and adjoining Beaune 1er cru.

Tasting Notes:

Pommard is normally dense, muscular and angular – this is a revelation! A dense, richly sweet and powerful Pinot, showing a beguiling lush quality both in fruit and structure. A palate of mulled black fruits, sweet cherry, cassis, tobacco and a flinty minerality that hints at the limestone and marl soils, opens to a supple and refined structure. There is sinew, but this is wrapped around the core of plush black fruit and sweet oak. Very fine – an age-worthy wine.
