HOUSE OF TOWNEND

Saint Véran 'Vers Les Monts' 2024, Domaine Luquet Depuis 1878 12 x 75cl

Price	£118.00
Code	STVE125

A wine of great precision and yet open and forward in style, Patrick Luquet picks from 2 plots totalling around 1.5 hectares in the villages of Chasselas and Solutré-Pouilly on soils of red clay. An appellation that is gaining greater attention and one that shows there are still bargains to be had in Burgundy!

Tasting Notes:

The bouquet is fresh and lively, with pear and green apple complemented by a touch of citrus and subtle exotic spice. On the palate, it is clean, crisp, and precise, with steely minerality and wet stone notes. This wine has lovely depth and a richer mouthfeel, balanced by zesty acidity and fresh minerality. An appellation that is gaining greater attention and one that shows there are still bargains to be had in Burgundy!
