Ridge, Monte Bello 1997

Price	£349.00
Code	RIDG005

This exceptional Bordeaux blend is "The product of a generous crop and a balmy vintage, the 1997 Monte Bello continues to show beautifully, wafting from the glass with an expressive bouquet of cassis, dried cherries, menthol and loamy soil, lavishly framed by new American oak. " Robert Parker

Tasting Notes:

"On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, supple and open-knit, with largely melted tannins and a generous personality, which is all tied together by the bright thread of acidity that's such a signature of this site." Robert Parker
