Since 1729 Dom Ruinart Champagne the oldest champagne house, has been creating its champagnes in the spirit of innovation, purity and timeless elegance - characteristic traits of the Ruinart. Ruinart combine delicacy and subtle freshness, all from the finest grapes, skillful blending and extensive aging in 2000 year old cellars, said to be the most historically beautiful cellars in France. Excellence and luxury combined within the distinctly shaped Ruinart bottle.

Tasting Notes:

The Ruinart style is floral and elegant with a lovely complex character - fruit is developed and long with notes of spice, brioche and roasted sweet nut.
