Taylor's Vintage Port 2009, Half Bottle

Price £44.99
Code TAYL130

Regarded as the benchmark for Port wines, Taylors arguably sits alone at the top of a very crowded tree when it comes to quality and structure of wines. This is a vintage Port wine which manages to combine the massive structure and powerful fruitiness of the 2009 harvest with elegance, poise and finesse.

Tasting Notes:

Inky black in colour with a purple rim. Its nose has great purity with concentrated black woodland fruit laced with raspberry and plum. Around its dense fruity core, with attractive vibrancy and minerality, is a fragrant and complex aura of citrus fruit blossom and herbal scents of mint and lavender. Supported by thick sinewy tannins, the palate explodes with concentrated ripe black fruit flavours surging into the long glorious finish.

Producer Overview	For many, Taylor's is the archetypal Port house and its wines the quintessential Ports. Established over three centuries ago in 1692, Taylor's is one of the oldest of the founding Port houses. It is dedicated entirely to the production of Port wine and in particular to its finest styles. Based in Oporto and the Douro Valley the company is closely involved in all stages of the production of its Ports, from the planting of the vineyard and the cultivation of the grapes to the making, ageing, blending and bottling of the wines.
