Exclusively bottled for the UK, this complex bronze malt enjoyed initial ageing for over 8 years in premium American oak ex-Bourbon barrels. Adding further richness and flavour, the unpeated Scotch whisky then enjoyed a finishing period of approximately 42 months in specially selected Marsala casks.

Tasting Notes:

A fortified wine produced on the Italian island of Sicily, these Marsala barrels have created a well-rounded palate bursting with sweet fruits and smooth caramel, leading to a velvety mouthfeel and long finish.
