Tasting Notes:

This 1er Cru is situated to the eastern extremities of the appellation, adjacent to Pommard on a chalk and powdery limestone subsoil. Produced from vines averaging 60-65 years old, this wine is aged for 14 months in 15% new oak. The nose is immediate and impressively inviting. Thick, sweet edged and forward, dominated by mulled black fruits, confiture, cherry and smoky spice. The tannins, appearing soft to begin, tighten up as the mouth develops, yet are never overpowering, as the fruit is just so thick and succulent. Freshness comes from a touch of citrus and cranberry on the finish, with distinct chalky minerality and a ripeness that just wells from the glass at every sip. One stunning wine!

Press Comments	Jancis Robinson, 2022, 17.5 points "Cask sample. Mid cherry red. Chirpy, almost sweet, red fruit on the nose, just slightly peppery. Smooth and chewy in texture, surprisingly smooth and soft but there's structure in the background. Deep, generous, refined. "
